Published on August 12, 2013 July 5, 2013 by Adam Powers. Christian Education is a vital part of Christian life, no matter what generation you find yourself in. Remember we said it was vital because it is both teaching and learning (education) and centered on the God of the Bible (Christian). If education is about anything else, or centered upon any other hub than the God of glory, it may remain to be education, but it ceases to be specifically Christian education.
