A blog experiment by Brad Mills. Just in case you're jonesing for a Star Trek fix before Star Trek: Discovery starts in a week or so, you'd do well to check out The Orville on Fox. It's not Trek, but it's a great show — in space, on a spaceship, with a crew that has fantastic chemistry — and there's enough familiarity to make any Trek fan feel right at home.

Weirdbook 31 magazine by Wildside Publishing is a revival of the magazine from 1997. I am not familiar with the original Weirdbook, so I have nothing to compare it to. An anthology series is only as good as the authors involved.

Weirdbook 31 by Douglas Draa - Goodreads

Well, I just finished reading Weirdbook #38. Editor Doug Draa has produced another solid issue of weird fiction. As usual, for the sake of brevity, I'm going to concentrate on the stories that I liked or that, at least, really stood out to me. "Harlot Road" by Michael Bracken is a political thriller wrapped around a revenge story.
